

Part I. Indicate whether the following sentences are true or false:

- T 1. Eastern Christianity has generally been more speculative in theology than Western Christianity.
- T 2. Nestorianism denied that Christ was only one person.
- T 3. It was the laity who reacted against Nestorius because he denied that Mary was the Mother of God.
- F 4. The champion of orthodoxy against Nestorius was St. Athanasius.
- T 5. The hypostatic union means that in Christ there is only one person or individual with two distinct natures, divine and human.
- T 6. In Christ, the Logos or Word of God assumed a truly human nature.
- F 7. When Christ said, "The Father and I are one," He meant that the Father and He are the same person.
- F 8. We may not adore the humanity of Christ.
- T 9. Apollinaris denied that Christ had a true human nature.
- T 10. In Christ there are two intellects and two wills, divine and human.

Part II. Match the terms in the following parallel columns:

- | | |
|---|---|
|  14  11. Apollinaris | 11. Two natures of Christ united in one Divine Person |
|  16  12. Filioque | 12. God-bearer |
|  20  13. Theotokos | 13. Claimed Christ was two persons |
|  19  14. St. Cyril of Alexandria | 14. Denied Christ had a rational soul |
|  11  15. Hypostatic union | 15. Word of God |
|  18  16. Council of Ephesus | 16. And of the Son |
|  15  17. Logos Theou | 17. Mother of Christ |
|  17  18. Christokos | 18. Condemned Nestorius |
|  13  19. Nestorianism | 19. Opponent of Nestorius |
|  12  20. Theophoros | 20. Mother of God |