Apparitions of the Virgin Mary at SIEKIERKI

At the time of the Second World War there were six churches in the region of Siekierki and it was not even possible to build one more in the town. Thus the people decided to pray near their homes instead. On the evening of May 3, 1943, during the celebration of Our Lady of Poland, in the midst of the war, Jakubowski (a), a priest from Wadowice, returned home after having gone with other children to pray before the cross. Wadowice, located on the outskirts of the city, is situated on an island surrounded by the embankments of the town and separated from the town by a narrow street. The streets were deserted, and the atmosphere was heavy. Jakubowski returned home after visiting the Virgin Mary shrine near the town of Siekierki.

The Virgin Mary is revered in Siekierki. The Church of Our Lady of Siekierki is located in the heart of the town. It is a small, simple church with a large statue of the Virgin Mary in the main altar. The statue is accompanied by a small statue of Saint Joseph. The church is dedicated to Our Lady of Siekierki and is a popular pilgrimage site for the faithful. The church is located on the outskirts of the town, and the streets leading to it are narrow and winding. The church was built in the 19th century and has been renovated several times since then. The church is open to the public for prayer and worship.

At the time of the Second World War, the town of Siekierki was occupied by the German army. The church was used as a military hospital and was destroyed by the retreating German forces in 1945. The church was later rebuilt and restored to its original state.

The Virgin Mary is considered a patron saint of Siekierki and is revered by the faithful. The church is a popular pilgrimage site and draws visitors from all over Poland. The church is located at the intersection of two major roads and is easily accessible by car or public transportation. The church is open to the public for prayer and worship, and is a popular destination for tourists and pilgrims.

The church is a symbol of the strength and resilience of the Polish people during the Second World War. It is a testament to the enduring spirit of the Polish people and their commitment to faith and community. The church is a place of hope and inspiration, and a reminder of the importance of faith and devotion in times of adversity.

The church is a place of pilgrimage and a source of spiritual strength for the faithful. The statue of the Virgin Mary is a symbol of comfort and protection, and is revered by the faithful. The church is a place of prayer and worship, and is a source of inspiration for all who visit.

The church is a testament to the enduring spirit of the Polish people and their commitment to faith and community. It is a place of pilgrimage and a source of spiritual strength for the faithful, and a symbol of the resilience and strength of the Polish people during the Second World War.