

Treasury of Catholic Wisdom
 Instructor: Fr. John A. Hardon, S.J.
 QUIZ on St. Catherine of Siena

I. Indicate whether the following are TRUE or FALSE:

- T   1. We grow in the love of God by our gratitude to God.
- T   2. We are to follow in the footsteps of Jesus crucified.
- F   3. We can love God without first knowing God.
- T   4. Only love can make adequate recompense for sin.
- T   5. The more we love God, the more He loves us.
- T   6. All suffering is the consequence of sin.
- F   7. Every person's suffering are the penalty for his own sins.
- T   8. The more holy a person, the more expiatory his suffering.
- T   9. We cannot expiate our sins without love for God.
- T   10. God allows us to sin so that we might love Him more.
- T   11. Guilt means the greater or less loss of grace.
- T   12. Penalty means the debt of pain due for sin.
- F   13. Temporal punishment for sin is only in the life to come.
- T   14. We can expiate all temporal punishment for sin in this life.
- T   15. We are all naturally proud.
- F   16. We are naturally selfless.
- T   17. Other people are meant to be sources of grace for us.
- T   18. Temptations from the world are the attractive sins of others.
- T   19. Everyone is tempted by the devil.
- F   20. We all receive the same degree of grace from God.
- T   21. We all receive sufficient grace to reach heaven.
- T   22. Not everyone will enter heaven.
- T   23. We cannot practice virtue unless we control our thoughts.
- T   24. To control our thoughts, we must control our senses.
- T   25. Everyone must suffer, but some suffer more than others.
- T   26. We grow in patience through suffering.
- F   27. Hope in God is the same as trust in God.
- F   28. We always have the grace to overcome the moment we are tempted.
- T   29. We always have the grace to pray for grace.
- T   30. Everyone who enters our lives is part of God's providence.

II. MATCH the terms in the following columns:

- |  |  |
|--|--|
|   34   31. Divine Providence              | 31. Dominican Tertiary                             |
|   37   32. Patroness of Italy             | 32. Symbol of Christ's redeeming love of the world |
|   40   33. Doctors of the Church          | 33. Sufferings in this life and in purgatory       |
|   31   34. St. Catherine of Siena         | 34. Divine plan for the world                      |
|   32   35. Precious Blood of Christ       | 35. Detachment from creatures                      |
|   35   36. Sufferings in the life         | 36. Stem from the perverse root of self-love       |
|   38   37. Sin                            | 37. St. Catherine of Siena                         |
|   33   38. Temporal punishment for sin    | 38. Part of the mysterious providence of God       |
|   36   39. All the troubles in the Church | 39. Part of our fallen nature                      |
|   39   40. Unruly passions                | 40. St. Teresa of Avila and Catherine of Siena     |